The FPIES Foundation HONORED AS 2014 TOP-RATED NONPROFIT
GreatNonprofits.org Award is based on Positive Online Reviews

November 12, 2014 – The FPIES Foundation announces that it has been honored with a prestigious 2014 Top-Rated Award by GreatNonprofits, the leading provider of user reviews about nonprofit organizations.

“We are excited to be named a Top-Rated 2014 Nonprofit,” says Amanda Lefew, Co-Director of The FPIES Foundation. “We are proud of our accomplishments this year, including the first FPIES Global Registry in partnership with Patient Crossroads, the launch of the ‘Kids Spot’ on our website, and an Advocacy webinar in partnership with ThriveRx.” The Top-Rated Nonprofit award was based on the large number of positive reviews that The FPIES Foundation received – reviews written by volunteers, and families of children living with FPIES, and the general public. People posted their personal experience with the nonprofit. For example, one person wrote, “The FPIES Foundation has brought together a wonderful combination of support from others going through the same struggles, as well as expertise from the medical field to provide insight as the knowledge and information grows on how to diagnose and treat children with FPIES. They have put together so many resources to help families in one central place.” While the Top-Rated Awards run through the end of October, The FPIES Foundation was part of the inaugural group to qualify for the year. In addition, we’ll be added to GreatNonprofits #GivingTuesday Guide—an interactive guide to top nonprofits throughout the year. Look for this near the holidays.

“Savvy donors want to see the impact of their donations more than ever,” said Perla Ni, CEO of GreatNonprofits, “People with direct experience with The FPIES Foundation have voted that the organization is making a real difference.”

Being on the Top-Rated list gives donors and volunteers more confidence that this is a credible organization. The reviews by volunteers, families, clients and other donors show the on-the-ground results of this nonprofit. This award is a form of recognition by the community.

The FPIES Foundation is an Incorporated 501(c)(3) Non-Profit Foundation. It is a collaborative effort of several families affected by FPIES whose relentless journey has sparked the desire to help other families find their way. FPIES is often under recognized and poorly understood. The organization's founders identified a dire need for tangible support resources for both the affected families and the medical community. The FPIES Foundation is committed to providing a credible and interactive support resource for this rare, oftentimes isolating diagnosis. It strives to make the everyday lives of FPIES children and their families easier.
